News of South Richmond

South Richmond Bureau.
The Times-Dispatch, 1100 Hull Street.
An alarm of fire was turned in yesterday afternoon at 3:45 o'clock, smoke having been discovered rising from the Cameron Stove Company's plant at Ninth Street near Semmes Avenue. The prompt response of the South Richmond Fire Department probably prevented the blaze from reaching alarming proportions. The loss was trivial, being estimated at between $15 and $20. The fire originated from a spark in the Police Court.
Lavinia Allen, colored, of 23 East Fifteenth Street, has made complaint before Justice of the Peace Jacob Levy that on June 10 John Henry, also colored, obtained board, amounting to $1.50, with intent to defraud. The case will be heard in Police Court, Part 2, Justice Maurice presiding, this morning.
Bessie Mayo, a colored woman, has complained before Justice H. A. Maurice against Henron Robertson, also colored, charging him with assault and battery. James Coleman and Jane Mayo, both colored, have been summoned as witnesses. The case will come up in Police Court this morning.
Mrs. W. T. Peters, of 117 East Fourth Street, yesterday morning in the Police Court charged her husband with having hurled a plate at her. The Justice arraigned the man severally and fined him $10 and placed him under bond for one year. Peters went to jail in default.

Revival Services.
Revival services will commence at Oak Grove Church to-morrow morning at 11 o'clock. The pastor will preach a special sermon at night, the subject to be "Christ's Command to Church Members." Rev. J. T. Haley, pastor of Stockton Street Baptist

The funeral of Mrs. A. B. Shelton will be held at Asbury Methodist Church this afternoon at 3 o'clock.

SPENCE'S SLAYER CAUGHT AT HOME

Removed From Roanoke as Authorities Feared Trouble.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Roanoke, Va., October 21.—Pomp Scott, a negro, was arrested this afternoon, charged with the murder of Virginia Railway Yard Conductor Marcus M. Spence, who was found in a pool of blood near the railway yards yesterday. Scott was hurriedly taken out of town in an automobile, and was carried to some other city for safekeeping. The authorities feared trouble had the alleged slayer of the conductor remained here.
Scott was caught in his home and a blood-stained knife and some bloody clothing were found in his possession. It is said he confessed to his wife that he cut Spence to death.

Scott Claims Self-Defense.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Lynchburg, Va., October 21.—Pomp Scott, colored, who was arrested to-day in Roanoke, charged with the brutal murder of M. M. Spence, a Virginia Railway yard conductor, yesterday, to-night made a statement before Police Justice F. W. Whitaker, in which he claims he did the cutting in self-defense. The negro claimed Spence struck him with an iron bolt in the back, as well as jumped on him with his feet and kicked him before he cut him. The negro tried in vain to-night to disclose cuts on his chest, stomach and back, but there was no abrasion, save a slight one on the forehead.
Scott claims he did not tell of his cutting the white man, for he heard so many threats of violence. He did not know Spence was dead until late last night.

The negro was brought here by Detective Funk and Officer Reynolds of the Roanoke department, coming on the Memphis special, which made a special stop at the Hotel Montvale to which place the prisoner was carried by automobile to escape mob violence.

Scott's statement covers 1,000 words. He was taken to jail at 10 o'clock.

NOT PAID FROM WATER RENTS

Auditor Warren Denies Statement Made in Ordinance Committee.

City Auditor Warren yesterday denied emphatically the statement made on the floor of the Committee on Ordinance, Charter and Reform, on Thursday night that the acting head of the South Richmond Water Works was being paid from the water receipts of South Richmond. Mr. Warren says that such a course is contrary to city ordinance, all receipts from water rents being paid directly into the City Treasury, and having no relation to the payments.

Washington Ward, formerly the city of Manchester, was annexed to Richmond on April 15, explained Mr. Warren, and the annual budget for the fiscal year had already been adopted, the needs of the various departments having been estimated on the basis of the annexed city, without regard to the probable annexation.

Under the annexation ordinance the depends upon proper nourishment—a balanced ration. The most frequent lack is bone-forming material, causing soft, weak, diseased, crooked bones.

Scott's Emulsion supplies every element needed. It's a balanced ration for bone as well as flesh. Every child should have a small dose daily.

three examinations he had concluded that the disputed mark was not a scar. He had found hair follicles and a sebaceous gland within the area of the so-called scar.
The importance of this evidence rests on the admission by the medical experts for the prosecution that the coexistence of a scar and a sebaceous gland was impossible. This closed the evidence for the defense.

DR. CRIPPEN MAY KNOW FATE TO-DAY

for both to start a new home together, abroad. Crippen was under cross-examination for practically four hours. When the defendant was excused from the box, Dr. Turnbull, director of the Pathological Institute of the Gordon Hospital, was called for the defense. He bluntly declared that the so-called scar on the body of the victim could not possibly be a scar.

Mark, Not a Scar.
Dr. Turnbull said that a microscopic examination had convinced him that the mark on the body had been caused by a folding of the skin under pressure.

When the witness stated that it was not characteristic of a scar to be wider at the bottom than at the top, the Lord Chief Justice interposed with the remark that the witness differed with Professor Pepper, who had performed hundreds of operations, and asked Dr. Turnbull whether he had ever operated. The witness replied that he had not.

Dr. Reginald C. B. Wall, assistant physician at London Hospital and Brompton Hospital for Diseases of the Chest, was called next by the defense. He testified that as a result of former Superintendent of the Manchester Water Works, C. A. Burkert, was continued as an assistant superintendent to the end of the term for which he had been elected, his term expiring August 31. South Richmond has a separate water pumping plant, with a cogulating works for clearing water and separate distribution system which has to be operated at least until mains can be laid, which will connect the Southside with the Richmond reservoirs.

The general ordinance gives the superintendent authority to employ such men as are necessary to operate the plant, and the emergency armistice through the inaction of the old Council, and it being necessary to continue the plant in operation, Mr. Davis appointed Mr. Burkert, with the approval of the Committee on Water. It is now sought to make the position of second assistant a permanent one, with the proviso that should the official not be employed for all his time in South Richmond, he may also be assigned to other duties by the superintendent.

Married in Washington.
